Shikun Gao and Josai University Delegation Pays a Visit to Shanghai Jiaotong University Institute of Cultural and Creative Industry

On April 29, 2019, the delegation led by the Josai University Corporate Headquarters Director of Affair, Yuki-hisa Kitamura, visited Shanghai Jiaotong University Institute of Cultural and Creative Industry (ICCI) Zizhu Teaching Research Base. Dean of ICCI Weimin Zhang, Vice Deans Jinzhang Jiang and Feng Zhao also visited accompanied by Yuping Cai, the deputy director of the International Cooperation and Exchange Department of Shanghai Jiaotong University and deputy director of the Japan Research Center, and Shikun Gao, representing Shimin Law Office.

In their conversation, they discussed about creating new programs, raising talented and creative students, communication and teamwork among students, and more. Both agreed that in order to have more beneficial relationship, they should both have more frequent visits of the professors, learn from the other, and have more communication.
